fora_office

FO423W

: product card

The Fora_office collection is an extension of the modular Fora sofa line. It was designed for office spaces and meeting zones, combining functionality, comfort, and flexibility. With carefully selected proportions — a higher seat and shallower depth — this series supports shorter, more dynamic interactions while still providing seating comfort.

collection advantages

comfort for business meetings

Fora_office is designed with a focus on ergonomics and functionality in the office environment. The optimal seat height and depth provide comfort while maintaining an active sitting posture, supporting effective idea exchange during short meetings.

work and meetings in complete focus

The acoustic panels in the Fora_office collection effectively block external noise, creating a perfect environment for both office meetings and short, focused work sessions.

comfort and ergonomics

The Fora_office collection uses firmer foam materials that not only provide stable support but also encourage an active, dynamic seating experience – promoting healthy posture throughout the workday.
